

Washington Youth Tour

June 15-22, 2012

Shelby Energy Cooperative will award an all-expense paid trip for three high school juniors to Washington, D.C. During this weeklong trip, you will learn about our nation's history and its government, rural electrification, and you will make new friends from across the nation.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Be a high school junior.
- Follow all contest rules.
- Parent(s)/guardian(s) must be a member of Shelby Energy Cooperative.
Excludes immediate family of Shelby Energy Cooperative employees and board members.

CONTEST RULES:

- Complete this entry form and submit it with a current school photograph (head & shoulders pose only).
- Topic for essay: Describe ways in which new technologies and social media can be used to connect and communicate with you and other young adults. Essay should be at least 500 words typed and double-spaced. Essays will be judged on content, grammar, and spelling.
- A recommendation note written by the student's high school guidance counselor or English teacher.
- List of high school activities and work history.
- Winners are asked to attend Shelby Energy's Annual Meeting in June where they will be introduced to the membership.
- All applications and essays should be received at a Shelby Energy office by 4:30 p.m., Friday, March 16, 2012.
- Finalists will be selected to attend the Frankfort VIP tour in April. The Washington, D.C. Youth Tour winners will be notified after the Frankfort Youth Tour.
